(April 7, 2004- TROY)- The following is the authorized statement of Mayor Harry Tutunjian concerning the arrest of 37-year-old Gregory Heckstall in the murder of Christopher Drabik.

“This was a case of good old fashioned police work. I want to thank the Troy Police Department and all of the agencies involved for their cooperation. All of the detectives involved should be commended for their hard work and resolve for solving this case.”

“Let this be a message to those who intend to commit crimes in the City of Troy. We will find you and we will bring you to justice.”
